

ABOUT THE WEBSITE

MissTravel.com, the world's first travel-dating website, was launched in April 2012. The site connects adventurous people who are passionate about travel and new experiences.

Instead of the conventional date, such as the movies or dinner, singles travel to far-flung destinations together in hopes of finding romance. MissTravel.com was founded by MIT alum and online dating expert, Brandon Wade, and joins an impressive brand family of successful niche dating websites.

MissTravel launched its mobile app in July 2015. It is available for free via Google Play and the Apple App Store.
